

Celebrate the class of 2020

While the U will be holding a virtual celebration this spring, don't forget to take a minute to send an email, text or call to say congratulations to those who are graduating! While we need to stay physically apart, we can still celebrate their accomplishments.

Student Affairs Committee Changes

We are making some changes to existing committees and adding two new committees to address staff needs from a wider lens. With these changes, our goal is to increase collaboration, communication and staff engagement in four areas: Professional Development, Diversity and Inclusion, Social Connections and Staff Wellness. Each of these committees will be part of a larger organizational structure. Stay tuned for more updates and how you can get involved.
