Campus Dining: Serving our Community

Campus dining looks different right now. In addition to serving the students who remain on campus Chartwells is providing meals to service members stationed at Ft. Douglas who are here to support the Federal COVID-19 Response. They are also providing sponsored lunches to the workers who are continuing Kahlert Village construction. With a focus on a safety, dining is takeout and guidelines for PPE and physical distancing are in place. Preparations for fall are underway, with the hope that the team can return to full strength utilizing new COVID-19 protocols.

Upcoming Tech Trainings

Join us for "Document Storage: The What, When, and How" on Thursday, May 14 at a 11 a.m. with Mike Marcovecchio and Hayden Waters of Network Support. With so many options, figuring out where to store documents can be a challenge, particularly when working from home. Some options do not meet FERPA requirements and some cloud options are not secure. Please join us to learn about more about document security.
