In Case You Missed It

Dr. Michael Good, Senior Vice President of University of Utah Health, will be providing details will be included in your registration. Our next Student Affairs All Staff Meeting will be held on July 3rd.

Airs All Sta

Each week, participants will be sent a list of readings that will be helpful in bringing all of us to a similar foundation level of knowledge around social justice, decolonization, Anti-racism Reading

Although some of these books, poems, and video series don’t always explicitly workshop on diversity, I have noticed that some attendees love understanding topics around diversity and marginalized experiences in the context of stories/storytelling. As people, our brains work differently. In leading discussions and educational conversations around racial justice and decolonization.

Talking about diversity and inclusion in our professional and personal lives has become a common practice. Anti-racism books, workshops, and training are available on campus. To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

What topics would you like to see in SA Updates?

By Dr. Bryan Hubain, Associate Vice President for Student Development & Inclusion

Although some of these books, poems, and video series don’t always explicitly leverage campus connect.

Please share your ideas!

Required Training Before Returning to Campus

Applications are due on Tuesday, April 14th.

We are seeking new members on the four SADC Racial Justice and Decolonization Committees. Applications are due on Tuesday, June 30th!

Monthly Anti-Racism Reading

You must complete the required work, you must complete the required training through Human Resources. It takes less than 10 minutes. You can access this training here.

Weekly COVID-19 Updates with Dr. Good

This is just a friendly reminder to please stay up-to-date on official information from the University of Utah.