In case you were not aware, HR has expanded access to the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) for all university employees, not just full time staff.

As we prepare for fall, the University of Utah is seeking one individual to represent the Division of Student Affairs on the University of Utah Staff Council. The University of Utah Staff Council is seeking one individual to represent the Division of Student Affairs.

The Staff Council consists of 30 staff members (both exempt and non-exempt) from across campus. They are appointed by the University President for a term of three years, with one-third of the membership rotating off each year. Staff Council is governed by a nominations process and included in the University’s Bylaws.

In accordance with the University’s Constitution, Staff Council is the representative body of the University’s non-faculty employees. The Staff Council serves as an advisory board to the University President and the Board of Trustees.

The Staff Council advises the University President on matters of broad concern to staff and staff affairs. Staff Council promotes the principles of cooperation, equity, and social responsibility of the University by encouraging the development of a responsive and effectively managed University environment.

The Staff Council was established and is delegated authority by the President of the University to perform specific functions and activities. Staff Council formulates an annual strategic plan seeking to improve the effectiveness of the University’s organization.

If you are interested in serving on Staff Council, please visit the staff council website for more information.
