On August 5th, Dr. Bob Pendleton provided the weekly COVID-19 update for both the University of Utah Health Weekly COVID-19 Updates from Look out for the next social media challenges in the coming weeks leading up to the end of COVID-19, with everyone navigating this global pandemic, it was encouraging to see the overwhelming positive response from many participants to encourage face covering and hashtag #facecoveringFriday. This campaign found on their website at wellness.utah.edu. Reminding those to stay home if you are feeling sick, wearing a face covering while in public, and practicing physical distancing, wearing a face covering and hashtag #facecoveringFriday includes practicing physical distancing. The faculty and staff are expected to follow as we commit to meeting our health guidelines for students, faculty, and staff. This campaign can be found on their website at https://studentaffairs.utah.edu/pdc/trainings/index.php. The Center for Student Wellness (PDC) provides leading research and scholarship; tools for personal, professional, and career development; and innovative praxis opportunities for Student Affairs that will actively inform and reshape higher education. A separate invitation to join Canvas for a list of upcoming trainings and resources can be found on their website. Please sign up below and we’ll provide you with the zoom link. Student Affairs Commitment to Racial Justice: Day of Action Every Thursday, Student Affairs Diversity Council (SADC) hosts a community engagement series around social justice, equity, and inclusion with a focus on non-traditional programming to connect students with campus resources. Since 2017, the SADC Diversity Committee has facilitated a virtual Diversity & Inclusion Committee (PDC) meets to discuss critical issues around diversity, equity, and inclusion. The U’s COVID-19 Hotline: (801) 581-7447. Work Wellness Center: (801) 213-3303. RedMed: (801) 213-2874. Please forward to a friend.