Student Affairs Committee Updates

Great to see YoU!

As we return to the office, we are reminded of the importance of flexibility and maintained connections. We have created a list of ideas and strategies to help us navigate this transition.

1. Setting work life boundaries (e.g. actually taking care of yourself when you are not working)
2. Flexibility with meetings (e.g. use creativity, be efficient and schedule time to refresh)
3. Flexibility/grace with transition (e.g. be kind to each other as we readjust)
4. Looking forward to socializing and attending campus events (e.g. seeing old friends)
5. Celebrate small wins (e.g. having colleagues come in person for coffee)

We thank everyone for their contributions to our institution and look forward to seeing everyone in person! Thank you for all you do.
