Meet Angela! Angela is the office manager with the Veteran Support Center (VSC). She works directly with all the veteran work studies and interacts daily with veteran education and career advising, and VA counseling and healthcare referral. The center is an award-winning “one-stop shop” for military-connected students to find mentorship, career coaching, and employer networking events, as well as a lounge, Take care of U well-being center, and a combination of digital and physical resources to help students thrive. In Angela’s new role, she is responsible for the office of veterans and their families and has been working closely with the VSC’s leadership to ensure a smooth transition to her role. Angela has been a strong advocate for the.VSC and its mission to support veterans and their families, and she is excited to bring her passion and expertise to the position.

After accepting the position, Angela and her son embarked on a six-day cross-country road trip to explore the country and enjoy some quality time together. They first picked the Utah route, as she was offered a position with another organization that was closer to them. Angela’s journey to being with the VSC has been an adventure since the beginning, and she is looking forward to the opportunity to help students and connect with them. Angela is looking forward to the office’s location; besides this, she does not know what to expect. She enjoys the variety of work and the opportunity to help students and connect with them. Angela is seeking new employment. That is when she came in contact with the VSC as they were seeking a new office manager. Angela started her role amid the pandemic, and she is looking forward to making a positive impact on the VSC and its mission to support veterans and their families.
