TRAININGS & RESOURCES

Cybersecurity Training

Security awareness and training can help us all better protect ourselves, our institution, and those whose data we access. All Student Affairs staff are expected to take advantage of the many courses and resources to better protect themselves and the university.

STUDENT AFFAIRS COMMITTEE UPDATES

Join the Professional Development Committee!

The Student Affairs Professional Development Committee is looking for new members to help with two important projects:

1. Developing a consistent onboarding and offboarding program for Student Affairs.
2. Creating a training and professional development curriculum for Student Affairs personnel.

These projects are an integral part of our strategic plan, specifically supporting the objectives of "improving staff experience" and "improving management practices."
