

Common Thread Workshop Evaluation Summary

Summer 08

Palm Survey

88 Respondents

88 Completed (100%)

94.32% of respondents reported the facilities (lodging, meeting rooms, food, etc.) provided a comfortable workshop setting.

91.95% reported the check-in, record keeping, and logistical operations were handled efficiently.

88.38% reported the presenters were well informed and professional.

91.86% reported the content of the sessions was appropriate and informative.

92.02% reported the materials provided (hand-outs, t-shirts, bags, etc.) were useful and appreciated.

89.54% reported the service learning projects helped me see the connection between school work and the community.

89.54% reported the service learning projects made me want to find other ways I can serve others.

79.07% reported that during the workshop they felt comfortable sharing their ideas, thoughts, and opinions with the group.

95.35% reported this workshop increased their understanding and respect for others and their cultures and lifestyles.

91.86% reported that overall, this workshop was a worthwhile use of their time.

94.19% reported that as a result of this workshop, they plan to become more involved in service-oriented activities.