International Student Orientation Survey SP07

18 Respondents

18 Completed

Undergraduates 38.89% Graduate Students 61.11%

When asked about the reasons they chose to attend the U of U, students responded as follows:

61.11% Program reputation

27.78% Location

5.56% Cost

5.56% Friend/relative currently attends

16.67% Friend/relative is an alumnus/a.

11.11% Other

100% of respondents indicated they understood the basic immigration rules & regulations.

94.44% reported they understood the U of U's health insurance requirement for international students.

100% reported they knew how to contact campus police in case of emergency.

88.89% reported they knew where to go on campus for academic advising or academic help.

100% reported they gained useful information on campus resources and activities.

66.66% reported they know how to register for classes.

94.44% reported being more confident in their ability to succeed academically than prior to attending orientation.

88.89% reported being more confident in their ability to make friends and socialize with other students at the U than prior to attending orientation.

94.45% reported they now know what to expect from an American classroom.

94.45% of respondents reported the orientation registration process was smooth and efficient.

88.23% reported their Ambassador was helpful and familiarized them with campus. 100% reported the information sessions were helpful.

100% reported the International Center staff was friendly and knowledgeable.

When asked to identify which part(s) of the Orientation program were most helpful, respondents reported as follows:

17.65% - How to register for classes.

35.29% - Understanding the American classroom.

64.71% – Immigration rules and regulations

23.53% - How to call campus police

41.18% Student Health Services for illness/medical care

5.88% - Clubs and activities on campus

- 11.76% Talking with my Ambassador and other students 11.76% Meeting the Graduate School staff
- 5.88% Where to go on the weekends

All respondents indicated that overall, Orientation was helpful and worth their time.