

University of Utah Orientation 2009 - Benchmark

Summary of Key Findings:

- Students very aware (after Orientation) of Academic requirements
- Academic transition to University has not been difficult
- Students not well aware of social expectations and describe social transition to the University as difficult
- Improve on awareness of safety/security/campus regulations
- Students not well aware of campus resources (student services, employment, etc)

Actions Taken:

- Addition of session on academic expectations and one on Wellness on campus (covering alcohol/drug use and safety) for 2010 Orientations