

Honors U-Night Summary

19 Respondents

19 Completed

100% Students

0% Parents

6 (32%) attended 11/17

13 (68%) attended 1/19

Student responses

95% of student respondents reported Honors U-Night was a worthwhile event to attend. The 1 student respondent who reported being dissatisfied identified the Length of Event as the most dissatisfying aspect of the event.

100% of student respondents reported understanding the benefits of the Honors Program.

90% of student respondents reported attending a class was an important experience.

2 student respondents indicated NA.

Students reported visiting the following areas for departmental appointments:

37% Health

32% Sciences

26% Humanities

16% Engineering

16% Fine Arts

11% Political Science

11% Pre-Med

5% Architecture

5% Business

0% Education

0% Pre-Law

0% Psychology

95% reported their departmental visit provided the information they needed.

100% reported knowing the names of 2 or more contacts at the University.

100% reported Honors U-Night helped them to better understand campus life.

100% reported Honors Day made a positive impact on their perception of the U of U.

When asked to identify the MOST helpful part of their day, students responded as follows:

37% Learning more about the majors in which they are interested

32% Meeting the faculty/advisors during departmental appointments

11% Evening activities

11% Tours of campus/housing

5% Class visit
5% Honors Program information

When asked to identify the LEAST helpful part of their day, students responded as follows:

32% Class visit
21% Tours of campus/housing
16% Evening activities
16% Learning more about the majors in which they are interested
11% None of the above
5% Meeting the faculty/advisors during departmental appointments
0% Honors Program information

63% of student respondents reported they are planning to attend the U.
37% reported not being sure yet.
0% reported they are not planning to attend the U.

58% of student respondents reported their visit did impact their decision to attend the U.
37% denied their visit had an impact on their decision to attend the U.
5% reported they were already planning to attend the U.

Among their choices of schools to attend, students reported the U of U ranked:

58% 1st Choice
32% Top 3
5% Top5
0% Other
5% Prefer not to respond