American Indian High School Conference 2011

Brief description of program:
Students attending this conference will gain a better understanding of how to apply to college, how to pay for college, what college is really like from current college students, and an increase understanding of American Indian culture and issues.

Who was asked to complete survey: Students who attended, parents, and staff
Respondents: 6
Administration Type: paper with data entry into Campus Labs

Summary of Key Findings:
- 66.67% of respondents strongly Agreed that this was a worthwhile event to attend
- 66.67% of respondents felt that the Keynote Speaker was the most helpful part of the visit
- Only 33.33% felt that the workshops were the least helpful part of the visit
- 66.67% of respondents felt that they had the contact information for at least two people that they can speak with if they have future questions
- 66.67% of respondents Agree that they understand the admissions procedures
- 83.33% of respondents Agreed that as a result of the visit they now have a better understanding of what it would be like to attend the University of Utah as a American Indian student.
- 83% of respondents felt that their visit did impact their decision to attend the U.

Actions Taken:
- There were issues with the evaluation link and for some reason it did not accept the rest of the applicants. The results are not representatives of the actual total number of entries received.

Which department and/or program goals does this survey align with?
- Educate future undergraduate students about the opportunities available through higher education and at the University of Utah. Specific target groups include in-state and out-of-state freshmen and transfer students, ethnically diverse students, underrepresented students, academically talented students, non-traditional students, and international students.
- Guide, support, and advocate for future students throughout the inquiry to enrolled process.
- Provide future student groups and their families academically enriching experiences and programs on campus.

Which Student Affairs goals does this program align with?
- Student Engagement
- Commitment to Diversity