Meet Nolan! Nolan is a peer mentor with the Veteran Support Center. He has been in his role since the start of spring semester 2021. As a peer mentor, Nolan strives to interacting in person with students and attending events.

The VSC is an award-winning “one stop shop” for military-connected students to find education and career advising, and VA counseling and healthcare referral. The center also offers free computer and printing resources, a textbook loan library, peer mentoring, career coaching, and employer networking events, as well as a lounge, study area, refreshments, and veterans’ events. The VSC is open from 7 a.m.– 6 p.m.

As a peer mentor, Nolan has a passion for helping students find their community while they complete their degree at the U. As Nolan has learned the basics of running a business, such as how he prepared to attend the U, Nolan researched the campus life and resources, which is also helpful to students. Nolan has a passion for his role since the start of spring semester 2021. As a peer mentor, Nolan strives to interacting in person with students and attending events.
